

Ashley Montijo is a rising senior at Grace Christian school in Sanford, NC. Ashley adores children and she has a great deal of experience working with kids. She has worked for daycares previously, and is currently a coach with young gymnasts! Her love for performance began early on, and she has been active in theatre growing up. She is an actress at our local Temple Theatre and loves performing on stage for her community! She also has performance experience as a cheerleader for seven years. She is very sociable and loves interacting with people. Growing up, she always said she wanted to be a princess when she got older! Being able to join the Wishes Character Company cast is fulfilling her childhood dream. She cannot wait to see the smiles of the faces of the children and guests of all ages as they see their favorite princesses in person!
