

Bailey is a junior at UNC Wilmington who grew up in Sanford, NC! She is majoring in psychology, and after graduating from college her plan is to work with children. Her goal is to specialize in individuals with autism! Bailey loves to perform; she danced for 15 years and performed in the nutcracker every year! She adores children and has a great deal of experience babysitting and working with the children's program at her church. Bailey is so excited to work for Wishes to inspire children to follow their dreams! Bailey will be able to perform for parties in the Sanford area, but she will also be able to perform for events around Wilmington, NC!
