

Ephraim is a student at Sandhills Community College. He loves to perform and his interests include theatre, reading, and teaching. He has played in several shows at the local Temple Theatre in Sanford, NC and was most recently cast in Romeo and Juliet. He has leadership experience as an assistant teacher at his martial arts school, and he enjoyed working with the children there and sharing his talents with others. He has also been involved in youth ministry. Ephraim shares a passion for performance and working with other people. Ephraim is so excited to work for Wishes Character Company because he cannot wait to make more people smile!